

Summer Homework – Grade 5 Mathematics

Our students will have no formal math assignment during the summer months, but we strongly encourage everyone to complete their reading assignments and practice their math facts. Fifth grade teachers have the expectation that students will have mastered their math facts prior to the start of the school year. Have a great summer!