

Why Learn Hands-Only CPR?

- Teaches untrained bystanders how to perform a potentially life-saving skill
- Saves lives by putting more cardiac arrest victims within a few steps of lifesaving assistance
- 30 to 40 minute training course
- There are no formal assessments
- Non certification course
- No cost
- Taught by a certified Hands-Only CPR Presenter

Call Jill Patterson at 330-618-0523 to schedule a session for your company or group.

To become certified in First Aid/CPR/AED and other skills, such as lifeguarding and babysitting, visit <https://www.redcross.org/take-a-class>

