Nursery Rhymes

Itsy Bitsy Spider

The itsy bitsy spider crawled up the water spout.
Down came the rain, and washed the spider out.
Out came the sun, and dried up all the rain,
and the itsy bitsy spider went up the spout again.

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are.
Up above the world so high,
Like a diamond in the sky.
Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are.

Hickory Dickory Dock

Hickory, dickory, dock,
The mouse ran up the clock.
The clock struck one,
The mouse ran down,
Hickory, dickory, dock.

Hey Diddle Diddle

Hey diddle diddle,
The cat and the fiddle.
The cow jumped over the moon.
The little dog laughed,
To see such sport,
And the dish ran away with the spoon.

I'm a Little Teapot

I'm a little teapot, short and stout.
Here is my handle, here is my spout.
When I get all steamed up hear me shout.
Just tip me over and pour me out.

Paddycake, Paddycake

Paddycake, paddycake, baker's man,
Bake me a cake as fast as you can.
Roll it, pat it, mark it with a B,
Put it in the oven for baby and me.

Reading Tips for Parents of Toddlers

www.readingrockets.org

- Don't expect your toddler to sit still for a book. Toddlers need to MOVE, they may be moving, but they are listening.
- Recite rhymes, sing songs, pause to let your toddler finish a phrase or chant a refrain.
- Choose engaging books featuring animals or machines that invite movement and making sounds.
- Keep reading short, simple, and often.
- Encourage play that involves naming, describing, and communicating.
- Choose books about everyday experiences and feelings.
- Ask questions and take time to listen to your toddler's answers.
- Read favorite stories again and again.

Reading Tips for Parents of Preschoolers

www.readingrockets.org

- Read together every day.
- Giving everything a name helps build a child's vocabulary.
- Say how much you enjoy reading.
- Read with fun in your voice.
- Know when to stop. It's okay to stop if your child loses interest or is having trouble paying attention.
- Be interactive. Discuss what's happening in the book.
- Read it again and again. Go ahead and read your child's favorite book for the 100th time!
- Talk about writing, too. Mention to your child how we read from left to right and how words are separated by spaces.
- Point out print everywhere. Talk about the written words you see in the world around you. Ask your child to find a new word on each outing.
